243 Members To Decide Fate Of High School, Wage Increase

An article concerning improvements and renovations to Arlington's high school and one asking for a yearly salary increase for all Town Employees except school teachers were among the 91 articles placed on the Town Warrant which closed Monday.

The Town of Arlington would "foot" the bill for any conversions that would take place at the high school if the article is passed, while the state would "chip in" and pay 28.5 per cent of the cost of construction of any addition that might take place.

Meanwhile the local Personnel Board has recommended an increase of $208 per year for all Town Employees with the exception of school teachers. (Arlington's school teachers were given a $300 yearly wage increase in action taken by the School Board last week).

Originally Town Employees Local 680 asked approval of the Personnel Board of a request for a $260 yearly increase in salary for all Town Employees with the exception of school teachers. The requested amount would represent a $5.00 weekly increase. The requested $208 per year increase would represent an increase of $4.00 per week.

The wage increase article, Article 22 would represent an appropriation of $115,000 if passed. At the same time, Article 23, inserted by a group of ten registrars.

O'Brien Resigns From School Committee Effective March 5

Attorney William J. O'Brien Jr. resigned from the Arlington School Committee on Monday of this week. At the time of his resignation he submitted a statement to this newspaper in which he expressed his regret that he finds it necessary to resign before many of his aims, including Open School Committee Meetings, become accomplished facts.

Attorney O'Brien, who has led the campaign for Open School Committee Meetings and who was the first member of the board to take a public stand for regular open meetings, expressed his belief that the Open Meetings will be soon held on a regular basis. "It is my opinion," he stated "that many of those who were either mildly in favor or mildly against open meetings have been impressed by the ordinariness and good taste in which the recent 'sample' open meetings have been conducted." Mr. O'Brien added that he hoped the voters choose to fill his vacancy with a new member equally

Cub Pack 13 Plans Banquet

As part of the annual Scout Week celebration, the members of Troop 13 sponsored by St. James Church, Arlington Heights, will receive Holy Communion in a body on Sunday morning, February 5 and afterwards, enjoy a Communion Breakfast at D.A.V. hall.

Under the leadership of their scoutmaster, Frederick Pomeroy, the scouts of Troop 13 have been very active during the past year participating in many hikes and overnight camps and, during the hurricane emergency, performed many duties under the direction of the Civil Defense Director.

Many advancements have been earned. Kevin Callahan has become a Life Scout and Willard O'Leary, Daniel Mullin, Frederick Pomeroy, Jr., David Falwell and Joseph Fay are now First Class Scouts.

During the past few weeks the Spiritual Director, Rev. Robert Shea, has been putting in much time and hard work preparing candidates for the Ad Altare Dei award, the special prize for which Catholic Boy Scouts strive.

DeGrinney, Joseph Fay, John Nau, David Falwell, Daniel Mullin, Frederick Pomeroy, Jr., and Willard O'Leary are Troop 13 boys who are expected to win the award.

Others receiving instruction from Father Shea and who, also, are expected to win are Charles Doucette and John McCarthy of Troop 41 and John Flaherty of Troop 5.

All of the candidates will have their final examination at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross on Jan. 28, Archbishop Cushing, at a special Scout ceremony at the cathedral on Sunday, February 11, will present the medals to the successful candidates.

Recently invested members of Troop 13 are Tenderfoot Donald Dodge and Robert Pomeroy.

Selectmen Seek Aerial Maps

The Board of Selectmen has written to the State Commissioner of Public Works requesting copies of the aerial survey of the Morning-side area. This survey was to be ready before February 1 and pertains to possible sites of Route 3.

The Board's letter follows a meeting with the Mystic Improvement Association last week. Up to the minute information was given by Chairman Franklin W. Hurd, Selectmen Harris and Rawson to the group.

It was explained that unless the present legislature granted funds to Commissioner Volpe, no work could be started on construction of Route 3 from Burlington to Medford. Further explanations of the state plans was that the Arlington Board of Selectmen had presented alternate plans to Mr. Volpe that would cost $1,000,000 less than the present state plan.

The alternate plans will be studied by state engineers from the aerial survey made and further conferences will be requested by Arlington officials with state authorities.

As developments occur, local officials will inform the citizens of Arlington.

The Arlington co-chairman hope that again this year because of vast increase in polio it will be even a greater success. Anyone who is not contacted during the Mothers March can make a contribution to the Mothers March by mailing to the Arlington March of Dimes, 9 Mystic street.

Belmont Beats Arlington 4-1 in G. B. I. Dropping Locals Into Second Place Tie

Defending G.B.I. champion Belmont jumped back into the limelight last week with a 4-1 upset decision over co-leader Arlington. 4-1. Arlington has now been involved in three upsets in as many weeks, bowing to Stoneham two weeks ago, downing favored Melrose a week ago, and then losing to Belmont last weekend.

At the same time Melrose moved back into first place with a 4-0 verdict over Cambridge Latin; Newton walloped Medford 5-1; and Stoneham beat Rindge 4-3. As a result, Melrose now leads the loop with 10 points; Stoneham, Arlington and Newton have 8; and Belmont has 7. Medford and Rindge have picked up three points while cellar-dwelling Latin has but a single point to its credit.

After a scoreless first stanza, Belmont's Ted Crowley sent the defending champs out front when he beat John Apprill on a passout from Gardner at 1:12 of the second stanza.

At 5:04 of the same period, Gardner set up Pete Bennett and dedicated to school meetings where all of the public can see for themselves the manner in which their school business is conducted.

Attorney William O'Brien listed among his objectives that he believes one day will be effectuated:

A program of promoting wherever possible from within the school system by advertising fully all promotional opportunities among Arlington school employees and by encouraging all employees within the system to make application for promotion when they believe themselves qualified by training and experience for particular vacancies as they occur.

An acknowledged hiring policy for new teachers that favors those who have been and who are Arlington residents, since among this group will be found those who know and understand best the Town's traditions and those whose rent or taxes have supported the Arlington School System.

The elimination of the School System's present hiring policy that favors teachers college graduates over graduates of equally high standing and who have all necessary education courses when such students have been educated at colleges such as Radcliffe, Boston University, Regis, Boston College, Simmons, Harvard, Tufts, Emmanuel, Brandeis, and Tufts.

Mr. O'Brien also expressed his gratitude to those who supported his election, those who voted for him, and those who assisted him while he has been a School Committee Member.

The following is a copy of Attorney O'Brien's resignation from the Arlington School Committee:

Arlington, Massachusetts
January 23, 1956

Mr. James J. Golden,
Town Clerk,
Town of Arlington
Arlington, Massachusetts
Dear Mr. Golden:

Since my professional activities have been centered in the District of Columbia for the past few months and I expect them to be so centered indefinitely, I feel that in the best interest of the Arlington School System and the voters of Arlington I must resign from the Arlington School Committee.

This action is taken both because of the great inconvenience of attending meetings in the middle of the week (that would require air trips to Boston and immediate departure after each meeting) and because I can reasonably expect to be increasingly out of touch with conditions and factors that ordinarily contribute to my actions as a School Committee Member.

As you know I have served on the School Committee since 1954 and my term would normally expire in March 1957. In order that an elected School Committee Member may serve at all times it is my intention that my resignation be accepted now before the warrant for the Annual Election closes but that it not become effective until March 5, 1956.

In any event I desire that this letter be regarded as a present resignation that will allow the choice of my successor to be made by the entire citizenry of the Town at the Annual Town Meeting that is now just a few weeks away.

Very truly yours,
William J. O'Brien, Jr.
Member Arlington School Committee

Thomas Kenna Seeks 1-Year Post On School Board

At present there is an attorney for a three year term on the Arlington School Committee told the NEWS that he will instead seek the one-year term created Monday when School Committeeman William O'Brien announced that he was resigning as a member of the Board.

Mr. Kenna noted that O'Brien's decision leaves wide open the contest to fill his unexpired term, and that consequently he feels that his qualifications for the vacancy will be given serious thought by the parents and voters when they go to the polls in March to fill the vacancy.

According to Kenna the School Committee should have an attorney as a member of the board for obvious reasons.

He stated that: "The School Board functions as a creature of the state. Their duties and rights as well as power are checked and balanced by statutes and by court decisions. The business of the interpretation of these statute is properly that of the lawyer. The legal consequences of some decisions, based upon statute, are far reaching and at times embarrassing."

Mrs. Eva Sartell, 23 1-2 Linden street, Somerville, announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret, to Mr. Ralph Grassia, son of Mrs. Florence Grassia, 5 Clarendon street.

Elections

Seven residents are candidates for the school committee.

Five of the seven are seeking three year terms. Included are: Mary Boyd, John Morine and M. Norcross Stratton all seeking reelection and candidates Mary Pirelli and Berg Keshian seeking election to office for the first time.

The other two, Dr. Richard Baker and Attorney Thomas Kenna, Jr., are seeking election by ballot for a one year term. The one year vacancy came about when School Committeeman William O'Brien resigned Monday. There will be no interim appointment to fill the vacancy.

Stanton Resigns From School Citizens Committee

Attorney John J. Stanton, of 17 Lanark road, Arlington Heights, in an announcement to the press states that he has submitted his resignation to the Chairman of the Arlington School Citizens Committee.

Attorney Stanton in his letter to the committee, effective January 24, 1956, says that it is his firm belief "that the committee composed largely of public spirited, high minded citizens, should be kept aloof from the political arena, and should never become a haven for office holders both present and potential." He further stated that when the committee was created, it was so created with this purpose in mind.

Attorney Stanton as an active candidate for the office of Town Moderator in the coming election submitted his resignation reluctantly, but feels that if he did not do so he would not be keeping faith with the committee members.

The School Citizens Committee, composed of outstanding citizens from each of the Town's fourteen precincts was established for the purpose of acting as a liaison group between the School Committee and the people; and to aid the latter committee in the formulation of the school policy.

Some of the subjects under discussion at the present time are:

The need for a high school addition; interpreting the school building committee program to the community; and the desirability of the proposed change to two year junior high schools.

Attorney Stanton was the representative from Precinct 14-A. Attorney William McMahon, 19 Kilsyth road was immediately elected to succeed Stanton.

Corcoran Confirms Candidacy For Office

LAWRENCE CORCORAN

Attorney Lawrence E. Corcoran of 146 George street has confirmed the recent News report of his candidacy for Town Moderator. The long-time town meeting member and national merit award winning Moderator of the Yankee Network Forum of the American Bar Association announced that he has consented to be a candidate and that he has met with some of his supporters to outline his campaign plans.

Attorney Corcoran has been an Arlington Town Meeting Member for 21 years and has been appointed to Town Committees on governmental problems by both the late Moderator Ernest Davis and present Moderator Harold Magnuson.

In making his announcement Mr. Corcoran stressed the need of electing a Moderator from among those who are fully acquainted with the Town Meeting form of Government and who have the benefit of sufficient experience with Town problems to make certain that the people most qualified will be appointed to the many committees that are the responsibility of the Moderator.

Lawrence Corcoran is a graduate of Arlington High, Harvard College, and the Harvard Law School. He has served as a town meeting member since 1935 and is Vice President of the Massachusetts Civic League. Corcoran served on the Committee on Town Government during the forties and more recently he has served on the Committee to Study the Town Manager Act.

Attorney Corcoran was an Alternate Delegate to the 1952 Democratic National Convention and is a former President of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association.

A Service To The Town

"The future will be brighter". — And so it will be in the Town of Arlington.

Although this general area, Arlington in particular, has been plagued by what have been called "exceptionally bad" situations in regard to water in recent months, the future is bright.

We base this statement on the fact that the solving of the Town's water problems (water volumes, pressures, etc.) are guided by two extremely capable men.

In a report to the Town Manager dated January 12, 1956, these two men submitted a report on water volumes and pressures in the Town of Arlington that is "something to see".

We would not hazard a guess as to the number of explanatory pages, but look at a Boston telephone directory and you will get the general idea.

The Town was divided into twenty districts in this report. In each district, such items as determination of risk and amount of water necessary; location of faulty and defective hydrants; proposed changes in hydrants; proposed and recommended locations of hydrants; proposed new hydrant locations; pipes in need of cleaning at the time of the report; and general recommendations of what should be done to remedy the problems were noted.

Last, but by no means least, the survey presented a complete listing of tests run on hydrants throughout the districts noting pounds per square inch static pressure, pounds per square inch dynamic pressure, observed pitot reading, quantity gallons per minute, and estimated quantity available gallons per minute.

(A pitot reading is the reading taken from a pitot tube indicator which by application of a formula gives the quantity of the discharge of each hydrant in the test and is the basis for the quantity gallons per minute.)

In a preliminary letter to the Manager before beginning explanation of the survey, the fact was noted that "since the inception of the survey, several matters that we exceptionally bad have been taken care of by cleaning, and that the program of cleaning, relaying and new installations will go on over a period of five years."

The report is valuable, not alone because it explains what can be expected in certain areas in case of fires, etc., but also what needs to be done to provide the Town with the best possible water system.

To the two men, Fire Chief Thomas Egan and Superintendent of Public Works Francis O'Hara, we congratulate you for the work you have done to make the completion of this report possible and for the service—saving of time and money—it will bring forth in future.

TOWN HALL Press Conference

As the result of a decision by Town Manager Monahan the room just inside the door in the addition to the Town Hall will be used as an interviewing office for the Veterans' Service. Veterans' Service main offices are located on the third floor of the addition.

It is also believed that the offices now being renovated for use by the Board of Selectmen located in the Town Hall will be ready for use about March 1.

Thirteen barriers have been placed at the Ryder street crossing. Both sides of the crossing is now blocked to vehicular traffic. The cement posts are five feet apart. Reflectors are expected to be placed on the posts and signs posted. Wooden horses have been placed at the road entrances at Summer street and Beck street.

Raymond Diston, 106 Crescent Hill avenue, William White, 29 Blossom street, and Oscar Weiser, 197 Spring street will serve on the jury pool in Cambridge next month.

The Town's share for 1955 for repairs and maintenance at the Middlesex County Sanitarium is $50,871.67. Meanwhile, the Town share for welfare, etc., at Symmes Hospital for the same year is $23,754.39, an increase of almost $5,000 over the 1954 figure.

Babson Discusses BUDGETING

(Exclusive NEWS Feature)

Bogus W. Babson

BABSON ON BUDGETING AND INVESTING

Most people seem content to live from day to day irrespective of their potations. Governmental "womb-to-tomb" social security has caused people to take ignominy problems of unemployment and old-age security. Most young people give little or no sound thought to their financial futures. They, therefore, never get even the few dollars necessary to get themselves started on the road to successful investment. Surely, the birds who build their nests (homes) before they raise their young set us a good example.

MEN AND MONEY

My father used to tell me that a man who systematically spends less than he gets, automatically becomes an employer; while a man who spends all he earns, automatically remains a wage earner. Rather, insisted that the business of saving had nothing to do with how much money a person had, or the amount of his salary. "Some people with very large incomes never save anything," he used to say.

It has been my own observation that partners in business and partners in marriage tend to get along well as long as there is plenty of cash in the bank. It is when the bills come in, and there is no money with which to pay them, that trouble begins. The only way to assure financial or marriage success is to tell your dollar where to go instead of asking where it went.

MAIN INVESTMENT PROBLEM: SAVING

Your first step in an investment program is to save some of your income each week. The next step is to make your savings produce some more income. I am a firm believer, however, that it is cheaper to pay the grocer than the doctor; hence a budget should be drawn up which puts first things really first. Many of my clients tell me that they are handicapped by spending too much on rent, or its equivalent in taxes, repairs, insurance, etc., on property owned. The best thing that could happen in many households today would be to cut down household labor costs by getting the children to help more with household chores.

To start a budget, one ought to determine from experience and from old bank statements and cancelled checks what his probable expenses will be for the year ahead. My observations through the years are that a man with a family of four who has a net income of $4,000 (after income and social security taxes) ought to hold his living expenses to about 75 per cent of the $4,000. About 42 per cent of this would go for food and clothing; 33 per cent for housing and transportation. Right here I think many families, especially in the lower-income brackets, will find that they are paying altogether too much for their transportation in the form of a new automobile which they cannot afford. If they want to get started on a sound investment program, they better pay more cash, and use less credit. 6 per cent is budgeted for benevolence and the church; 6 per cent for personal and miscellaneous items. This leaves about 13 per cent or $545, for insurance, savings accounts, and investments. Let us hope that $220 dollars of this will go for life insurance premiums. This would leave $325 a year to save and invest otherwise.

PLAN FOR SAVING AND INVESTING

A study of the average man's financial independence is generally shocking to most people. About 30 per cent of the men 55 years of age are not self-supporting. The real tragedy of this situation, as I have seen it, is that the average man made enough money between the ages of thirty and fifty to keep himself and his family in comparative ease for the rest of his life. He just never got around to a definite plan of saving and investing. Does it not seem senseless for you to work hard the best part of your life to get a few dollars if those dollars earn nothing for you after you get them? It is highly important to learn early in life how to budget, save, and invest.

Important capital is created only by labor and saving; those who consume less than they produce turn their surplus back into productive channels to increase the nation's store. Investments, plus bank deposits, are the way in which capital is increased. Increased capital means increased production. Greater production means more wealth. More wealth means more to be distributed among those who take part in production. Greater production means more consumable goods and services at lower prices for all of us. This is the democratic way of—it will bring forth in the future.

"Tight Papers" On The Way

Newspapers come out weekly, daily, some even twice a week. Metropolitan dailies print 60, 70, 80, 90 pages some days. Smaller dailies appear with six, eight, or ten pages. Weeklies vary in size, generally in this area an issue contains from between six to twenty-four pages.

Generally speaking, the number of pages in a paper hinge upon the amount of advertising contained therein, although the amount of advertising deemed necessary to run eight pages or ten or more, might well depend on the policy of the publisher.

Now, however, the time appears at hand, unfortunately, that a change will be made in the number of pages printed. The trend must go down. The reason, there simply is not enough paper to go around.

A Commerce Department study presented to Congress recently noted that some 65,000 tons of newspaper stock needed during the year 1956 just won't be available. Which means that corners will have to be cut—meaning generally fewer pages on the average for all types of newspapers—dailies, weeklies, etc.

In some cases, this shortage will not be noted early this year, in others it may not be noted until 1957, in some cases, a pinch is already being felt.

Eventually this situation will come to our community and it means that we will be forced to set a "maximum number of pages" figure. All of which means we will more often than not have what is known as a "tight paper". In other words we must by necessity plan our paper's more in advance than we now do and news items and advertising copy will have to be at the news office in advance of what they are at the present time to insure publication in any given issue.

The condition is one that doesn't at this time, at least, seem temporary. A recent Commerce Department study concluded that the present news stock shortage is a world wide situation and one that could cause a substantial deficit for United States Publishers for years to come.

We are sorry to say that eventually the situation will "hit" this newspaper. When it does, we hope to be prepared for it, and we further hope that you our readers and contributors will make our job easier by cooperating with us in any new plans or changes that are deemed essential.

It is encouraging to see that citizens who favor Town Management in Arlington are supporting a candidate for Selectman. It has become increasingly clear that the success of a Town Manager in administering the Town's affairs efficiently depends not only upon the cooperation of the Selectmen but on their acceptance of the specified division of responsibility between the Selectmen and the Manager.

I feel sure that a vote for Mrs. Spengler, the candidate of the Citizens for Town Management, will be a vote for a better Town.

Sincerely yours,
SARAH A. DAILY

To the Editor:

Your publication last week of the candidacy of Mrs. Kenneth Spengler for the office of selectman marks an interesting milestone in Arlington's town elections. Without any widespread endorsement of "women in politics," her decision to run has more than political ambition for the post of selectman in itself. She has a sincere desire to continue and improve the town manager administration of the town meeting form of government. For big towns, this is the proper combination to get things done.

Dear Sir:

I note with interest that Franklin W. Hurd, present Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, has announced his candidacy for re-election as Selectman.

Selectman Hurd has compiled an enviable record of public service to the people of Arlington in the past six years. During the period in which he served as a member and as Chairman of the Board of Park Commissioners, he was instrumental in the development and improvement of parks and recreational areas and the acquisition of new playgrounds for the children of the town.

Since his election to the Board of Selectmen three years ago, he has continued to display the same intense interest in the problems confronting Arlington's citizens. He has been in the forefront in the fight to prevent Route 3 from being brought down through precincts 11 and 9 and isolating part of this section from the rest of the town.

Selectman Hurd has fought long and vigorously — and now successfully — to replace the outmoded street cars on Massachusetts Ave. with new and modern busses. This has not only improved tremendously the service of the Arlington Heights-Harvard Square line but has also provided a far more comfortable ride for the many, many Arlington commuters using this line.

men — with Frank Hurd as its Chairman — held hearings on and recommended the acceptance of what is probably the largest street construction program in the history of the town. Under the direction of the Town Manager, some of these streets were constructed by town labor and the remainder let out on bid to private contractors. Many of these streets had been awaiting construction for several years. The successful completion of this program on schedule is but one of many examples of the spirit of cooperation existing between the Town Manager and the Board of Selectmen and its Chairman.

Selectman Hurd has shown the same interest and activity in the correction and solution of the countless smaller problems existing all over the town as he has shown in the major ones.

Selectman Hurd has shown the same consistent and zealous in his efforts to serve the people of Arlington who elected him to the highest office in the town. We are indeed fortunate in having a man of his caliber, ability and honesty willing to continue to devote his time and energies in our behalf.

I believe that the citizens of Arlington, recognizing his excellent record of public service, will re-elect Franklin W. Hurd to the Board of Selectmen by a substantial majority.

Very truly yours,
W. HOUSER.

Arlington, Mass.

Dear Sir:

You are to be commended for the prominence you gave the "Citizens For Town Management" in last week's issue of your paper. This should be an important committee for Arlington as the majority of our citizens are agreed that the Town needs a Town Manager to handle its affairs to best advantage. Now we have a voice.

We have also a splendid candidate for the important post of Selectman. Mrs. Spengler has every qualification necessary to aid in making wise policy decisions. With her able judgment and foresight, the Board of Selectmen will be greatly enriched.

Yours very truly,
Sidney R. DeBlais
(Mrs. S. W. DeBlais)

While the problems of through roads to meet the ever increasing demands of the "automobile" age have faced this area for some time, the problem of nation-wide construction is due to become an even greater issue in the immediate future. With the state of Massachusetts continuing a major era of road building, and the cities and towns in the area facing a problem of completing more local streets and keeping ever increasing miles of roads in shape, it is on the national level that attention will be focused in the months ahead.

More than $44,000,000,000 has been spent on the nation's highways in the past decade; indications are that $100,000,000,000 will be spent in the next five to ten years. Thus the efforts of the Eisenhower administration to enter the roadbuilding business on a large scale will be a major issue in the 1956 Congress, and will bear on the coming national election.

Anyone traveling far afield is impressed by steady improvements; but each improvement emphasizes the weakness of bottlenecks, limited bridge facilities, and any hazards for through traffic.

America has 50,000,000 cars on its highways now. Estimates indicate that by 1970, the total will reach 65,000,000. More important is the vital necessity for allowing these cars to travel more miles with greater facility in the period ahead.

An American faced with greater leisure than ever is taking to the wheels. Of the 5,500,000 visitors expected in Florida during the peak vacation season, more than 60 percent would make the trip by car. An even greater percentage of New England's annual visitors reach the area in their automobiles.

A recent poll of hundreds of newspaper editors in all parts of the country found many warnings of the encroachment of the federal government into another phase of local activity. But an even greater, more valuable group, summed it up this way: "We must think and act as a nation".

Highways ending at state lines, cutting from four lane throughways to two lane death traps at state lines must be eliminated. Only national planning can help, and it is our belief that state and local governments can waste as much money and spend as much to get a job done as the federal government can. An efficient, centrally planned and centrally executed national road system, paid for out of all revenue collected from automobile taxes, gasoline and other road taxes can keep the nation on its accelerated pace to prosperity.

Many people are feeling the current prosperity; many cannot sense the stepped up pace which is responsible for it. While the age of air travel is here, and is affecting our economy, our very life and leisure, we are approaching the greatest period of automobile travel in our history.

"We always get our new roads 10 years after we need them", was one statement. It is our hope that under federal direction, the major highways the nation needs for a stepped up economy can be constructed now, when the need is greatest.

Arlington NEWS

Arlington, Mass.

To the Editor:

I am happy to have been appointed as chairman of the 1956 Multiple Sclerosis drive in Arlington, to be conducted house to house on February 19th.

In 1939 Dr. Gilbert Horrax of Lahey Clinic, Boston, diagnosed me as a multiple sclerotic. He told me frankly that there was nothing within the medical field which could be done to stop the progress of this mysterious nerve disease. Time alone would tell how incapacitated I would become.

Like many patients who have received the same diagnosis I consulted many doctors and traveled to many states hoping to locate one doctor somewhere who might know something about the disease. My efforts have been in vain. Nothing has materialized which might give any help. However, I still hold tightly to the thought that research will soon find the answer.

Today I am in a wheelchair but I keep actively engaged promoting endeavors of the Massachusetts Chapter which includes speaking at various meetings and at coffee hours sponsored by the Women's Division of the Chapter.

Nothing is achieved without effort. My sincerest wish is that the effort expended on this drive will bring in sufficient funds to secure continued research.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth (Betty) F. Ray

The Nontigams still pace the Intermediate League with Richy Green leading scorer in the league. The Shamrocks with Aleandrer scoring 20 points gave the Nontigams a scare for three periods playing on even terms until the final period when the Nontigams club pulled away winning the game 83 to 66.

The Shamrocks, however, bounced back the following evening boasting the Yankees 46 to 36. Alexander and Quinn were high scorers for the winners with Crowley, Stone and Selters high scoring for the Yankees.

Youth Sunday At Universalist Church

"Without God there could be no American form of government nor an American way of life," said President Eisenhower this past year, as quoted in last Sunday's sermon at the Universalist Church.

Last Sunday, the Rev. George J. W. Pennington, Pastor of the Church, delivered a sermon entitled, "The Religious News of 1955" and as is his annual custom shortly after the New Year, reviewed some of the major happenings in the world of organized religion during the previous year.

Among events cited were the results of Pollster George Gallup's findings on Mr. and Mrs. America's belief in God and their reasons for this belief. Rev. Mr. Pennington reviewed the theology of Dr. Paul Tillich and evaluated it in the light of contemporary needs.

Modernistic forms of church architecture and changes in the were given consideration in the sermon along with a comparison of growth in Jewish and non-Jewish Religious Liberalism.

This Sunday will be observed as Youth Sunday. Members of the Senior Youth Fellowship will participate and Mr. Roland K. Hawkes, Minister to Youth, will be in charge of the service.

Selectmen Proclaim Multiple Sclerosis Month Thru March 10

WHEREAS: Multiple Sclerosis is a paralyzing and wasting disease of the central nervous system, and WHEREAS: The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, through its work, promotes a better understanding in the medical profession of the diagnosis and treatment of this malady, and

WHEREAS: This organization has adopted the slogan "M. S. Hope Chest", to spark its fund raising campaign in combating the inroads of this ailment,

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Board of Selectmen of Arlington, Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim the period between February 10 through March 10, 1956, as Multiple Sclerosis month and earnestly urge the citizens of this community to support this campaign to the fullest degree and to particularly cooperate in making donations on Sunday, February 19, 1956, when qualified representatives will canvass the Town for funds that will be used in assisting persons afflicted with Multiple Sclerosis in becoming useful self-sustaining citizens.

Franklin W. Hurd, Thomas R. Rawson, Joseph P. Greeley, Marcus L. Sorensen, George A. Harris, Selectmen of the Town of Arlington

Manager Seeks Clarification Of Center Plan

Board of Selectmen
Town Hall
Arlington, Massachusetts
Gentlemen:

Reference is made to the Planning Proposals of the Joint Planning Committee (so-called Benjamin Report), Item P-1, pages 14 and 15, entitled "Public off-street parking lot on Russell Common."

As the Honorable Board of Selectmen knows, the Russell Common was decided to the Town with limitations as to its eventual use. The provisions of the will of the donor written almost one hundred years ago appear to prohibit its use for parking purposes, unless the Courts ruled otherwise.

The Town has got to know where it stands regarding use of this land for any public purpose including public parking. If the area cannot be used for parking or other purposes, it may be considered advisable to take it by eminent domain.

It would appear desirable therefore that action be started to clarify the situation by the Town Counsel or outside counsel employed for the purpose.

The Arlington Center Shopping District has remained static for many years according to the assessed valuations of this important part of the Town's tax structure.

Unless action is taken as soon as possible, preferably before the next Annual Town Meeting if at all possible, this shopping area may deteriorate beyond recall before something is done to save the situation.

The Honorable Board of Selectmen may believe it advisable to insert an article in the Annual Town Meeting to provide for the legal and other costs to clarify the situation, and I so recommend, but as a basis for this article, the aforesaid legal inquiries or action must be initiated.

I, therefore, recommend that the Town Counsel be requested to advise the Selectmen as to the cost of acquiring this lot in one way or another.

Very truly yours,
Edward C. Monahan
Town Manager

(Ethel J. McCormick) of 298 Summer street, Arlington, a son, Paul Douglas on Jan. 12, at Symmes Arlington Hospital.

"Older People Should Not Be Treated Like A Group Separated From Community"

Protesting the growing belief that all old people should be segregated and treated like a group separated from the normal community, Hugh Cabot, Harvard authority on human relations and executive director of the Age Center of New England, 160 Commonwealth avenue, recently noted that it was contrary to the findings of studies made on older people by the Center since its inception a year ago. Cabot last week resigned his Harvard post to become full-time director of the Center, which is a non-profit research and service organization guided by some of the outstanding sociologists, psychologists and medical men in the Boston area. Members of the Center, all of niles whose problems are the most serious." "Similarly," Cabot suggested, "older people who are removed from the resources of community life lose much that is of value to them, and the community loses the many contributions they still have to make." Granting that older people face a particular set of problems, many of which are acute, Cabot pointed out that nevertheless the experience of the Age Center in working with older people indicates that most of them can solve their problems as they understand them and bring their rich experience to bear on them. Cabot deplored the growing trend towards the feeling that older people and their problems are so difficult to handle that they should be segregated from other groups and treated in isolation. "The big problem, rather," Cabot said, "is to find a way to work with older people and free their skills and years of knowledge for continuing value to the community." Commenting on the attitude of industry towards a fixed retirement age, Cabot deplored the view which considers retirement the end of a life. The Center's studies show that a business work life is often no more than a task completed for which, with changed circumstances, a new task can be

Palsy Campaign Planned For May

Dr. Marcus W. Berman announces on behalf of the Board of Directors that the United Cerebral Palsy of Boston, Inc., will hold its Sixth Annual Campaign Drive during the month of May to help the more than 7,000 cerebral palsied affected for life. It is planned that Dr. Sydney Farber, Chairman of the Cerebral Palsy Study Committee, will have a report for us at that time on the unmet needs of the cerebral palsied. The findings of the Center are based on sociological, psychological and medical studies which show that older people do not all want work despite limited income. When they do want employment they usually find it. Often however, they find a new and satisfying direction for an active life. Advisory committees of the Center include: Prof. Gordon W. Allport, Consultant; Dr. Raymond D. Adams, Dr. Mark D. Altschule, Dr. Joseph C. Aub, Prof. R. Freed Bales, Dr. Joseph Garland, Dr. Florence R. Kluckhohn, Dr. Eugene M. Landis, Dr. Donald J. Receives Patent For Machine For Making Metallic Rings

(Exclusive to the NEWS)
Laurits Andersen of Arlington, was the recipient on December 27, 1955 of U. S. patent 2,728,133, entitled "Machine For Making Metallic Rings".

This invention pertains to an improved machine for the manufacture of metal rings that are made from tubing and are applied as bands to projectiles. These rings are generally produced by sawing or cutting them from the end of a tube which has heretofore been mounted with a sliding fit upon a mandrel or rod.

According to Mr. Andersen, it has been impossible to eliminate distortion from rings produced by prior methods of the foregoing process. This distortion is commensurate with the sliding fit between the tubing and the mandrel; and it results in rings that are somewhat egg-shaped and have to be subjected to a separate finishing operation in order to correct their inaccuracies and bring their inside diameter and wall thickness to the specifications required in the finished rings.

To overcome this limitation, Mr. Andersen has devised a novel, automatic high speed machine wherein the tubing is supported with a sliding fit on a mandrel and is moved intermittently as successive rings are sheared therefrom. As particular features of his equipment, means are provided to support one end of the tube upon an inside forming die, to reduce the diameter of the supported end by swaging it against the die, and to shear his reduced end while keeping it under full swaging pressure.

In other words, it is claimed that with the apparatus of this invention there is no opportunity for distortion of the rings during the shearing step. The rings are made with extreme accuracy and uniformity and may be immediately applied as bands to shells without any intermediate operation on them other than annealing. As an additional advantageous feature, there is no waste of material at any point in the production of the rings.

This patent has been assigned to Herbert E. Edwards, Wellesley.

SENTENCED

Three men, Charles Taft, Chas. McGee, Jr., and Joseph Cleveland, held in connection with a break at the service station at 245 Massachusetts avenue, last month, were sentenced in Superior Court Tuesday. Cleveland was sentenced to 5 1/2 years in state prison; McGee was sentenced to the Concord Reformatory, and Taft was placed on probation for three years.

TIES FOR FIRST

Vic Faeon of Arlington tied for first in the high jump and took second in the broad jump as Tufts scored a surprising 67 1-2 to 40 1-2 win over Northeastern last Saturday in the seasons opener for both squads.

Faeon and teammate Lou Reagan tied for top spot in the high jump with a height of five feet 10 inches.

Gives Reasons For "Stepping Down"

The following is the text of the announcement of Town Moderator Harold Magnuson announcing that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

At this time I would like to follow and adopt a suggestion which has been made, in which I am glad to concur, and in which at least one other town officer has concurred, that on this occasion we recognize nearly 30 years of continuous service since the establishment of the representative town meeting in the town of Arlington by one of our members who has recently indicated his intention not to seek reelection. At this time I would like to ask Mr. Arthur Yeames to stand for just a second and be recognized by the body.

If I may ask the indulgence of the Town Meeting members for a personal matter, I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude and appreciation for the consideration, patience and cooperation which have been extended to me by you Town Meeting members, by the Chairman of the Finance Committee, the present chairman and the former chairman, Mr. Hayes, by the various chairmen and members of the Boards of Selectmen, by the present Town Counsel and the former Town Counsel Mr. Hamlet, Mr. Golden, who has helped the Moderator in a thousand ways during the last six years of my service.

The reason for asking your indulgence and taking this opportunity at this time to thank you is that I have definitely decided not to be a candidate for reelection. This is a decision which I have made most reluctantly and it is contrary to my personal desires.

Ever since I was a school boy and sat in the balcony of this hall over 3 years ago the Town Meetings have had a sentimental interest for me and from daily experience I have learned the value of this representative Town Meeting as an institution of local government, a legislative and appropriating body, which provides a high degree of citizen participation and which more closely reflects the will of the people than any other branch of the local government. The traditions of this particular Town Meeting are very honorable. There have been colorful and entertaining characters on our Town Meeting floor. But the most important aspect has been the body of faithful and conscientious citizens who have been willing to serve and sit here night after night during sometimes long deliberations.

My reasons for making this decision are, first, that in view of my judicial position, and even though there may be a possibility of having no opponent the fact of having one's name on the ballot might be considered a form of political activity which may be considered unbecoming to a judge although there is precedent in the Town of Arlington to the contrary. Secondly, I desperately feel the need of more time to fulfill my other professional responsibilities but, thirdly, and most important of all, I am sure that there are many of you Town Meeting members who are well qualified and able to serve better than I in aiding this meeting in an orderly and efficient deliberation of its business, in determining the decision of the majority or two-thirds or whatever the law may so require, and in that way representing the will of the people, and in so doing protecting and respecting the rights of the individual Town Meeting member and citizen.

Woman's Club Entertained By Marion Buttrick, Richard Giles

Marion Buttrick entertained members of the Arlington Woman's Club with a presentation of monologues and characterizations of well known and famous plays of James Barrie at a meeting of the club held Thursday.

Mrs. Einar T. Larsen, president opened the meeting and Mrs. Albert Porteus, second vice-president and Federation secretary, spoke on "Topics" and outlined the program of the State Federation meeting to be held January 24 at John Hancock Hall.

A memorial poem, "At the End of the Road" in memory of three departed members, was read with Mrs. Ralph Huffer at the piano.

Richard Giles, baritone, accompanied by George Gibbs, presented two groups of songs "Break, Break, Break," a Tennyson poem set to music, Kipling's poem set to music "On the Road to Mandalay" and "Someday," "Soliloquy" and "Take Joy Home".

In the Art Corners was an outstanding exhibit of copper arranged by Mrs. William H. Dickson, Chairman of the Art Committee. The display was on tables covered with a copper-rose-colored cloth of silk brocade. On one table there was a graduated set of copper tea pots, a copper carafe, copper tea service from Sweden over one hundred years old, seamless copper pieces from Norway graceful old copper pitcher, copper crumb tray with copper-handled brush and two small copper plaques.

On the other table was a brilliant display of hand-made copper in the modern manner. This included trays and bowls of various sizes, sugar scoop in the form of a planter, ornamental scones and single and triple candle holders.
